Will Ask Increase For Aid

Administration Has Tentatively Planned Request for Little Over Four Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration is tentatively planning to ask Congress for slightly more than four billion dollars to continue foreign aid for a 10th straight year.

Such a sum would boost to more than $5 billion dollars the amount of money the United States has granted for food, raw materials, weapons and technical assistance to more than 40 nations since the Marshall plan was launched in 1948.

The new program, now being drafted by officials, would cover the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

President Eisenhower, who may officially disclose its size in his budget message in January, still must give final approval to the sum tentatively agreed upon.

The State and Defense Departments and the International Cooperation Administration, which operates the foreign aid program, have agreed on a figure of slightly more than four billion dollars and have submitted it to the Budget Bureau, an arm of the White House.

The sum is about $900 million dollars less than the administration sought from Congress this year. Congress cut about $1 billion dollars from the administration program, voting $3,766,000,000.

Officials said the sum to be asked in new money would make it possible to maintain spending for both economic and military aid at current levels. This spending now totals about $4,200,000,000 annually — $2,700,000,000 of it for military aid.

One big unresolved question at present, informants said, is what to do about foreign aid to the war-torn Middle East. Economic aid programs have been suspended for Egypt, Israel, Jordan and Syria.

Planners are holding off a decision on funds for the Middle East in the hope that outlines of a peaceful settlement of present tensions may become clear.

Sedalians Take Part in Bishop's Installation

The Sedalia area was represented by a number of persons at the installation of Bishop Joseph M. Marling, the first Bishop of the new Jefferson City Diocese. Sedalia Catholic Churches are now a part of this diocese.

The Rev. A. J. Brunswick of the Sacred Heart Church and the Rev. Harold J. Beeler, Boonville, were assistants to Bishop Marling in both the installation ceremonies and the Solemn Votive Mass of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Rev. James N. Stedel, Tipton, also assisted in the Mass.

Attending the installation were 100 Fathers who are members of a Sedalia Order, the Society of the Most Precious Blood. Many of these have been assistants in the church here. The Society was founded in 1892.

Sisters and other clergy from Sedalia were also in attendance, including the Rev. Gerald Pelleter and the Rev. Joseph T. Nolan of St. Patrick's Church.

Eight members of the Fourth Degree Honor Guard, Knights of Columbus of Sedalia, were among over 60 others from churches in the new diocese who made up the Honor Guard for the Bishop.

Those from Sedalia in the Honor Guard were Maurice Hogan, James T. Denny, Andy Cramer, Carl Gramlich, Larry Riley, Claude Boul, Frank Neal and Harry McNamara.

AIRPORT THREATENED—A large grass fire near the Sedalia Municipal Airport Tuesday afternoon for a short time threatened the buildings and other equipment there and did burn some lumber. It was 2½ hours before the fire was brought under control. The firefighters can be seen at the left in this picture. (Democrat-Capital photo)

Fire Sweeps Grass Stand At Airport

Some Lumber Burns But Hangar, Other Units Are Saved

Fire which started from a fire on the Missouri Pacific right-of-way near the Sedalia Municipal Memorial airport Tuesday afternoon did considerable damage to a lespeze crop on the airfield, and burned piles of lumber belonging to the Civil Air Patrol. The fire got out of hand about 1:30 p.m. and quickly spread over the southwest end of the field, then raged out of control.

The fire burned down along the west and north side of the field and along the runway, thence back north. It appeared for a time as if the flames would burn themselves out at the south end and would not come near the hangar.

Three fire trucks from the city answered the call and took up a fighting position on the north end, trying to whip out the leaping flames with the use of the booster pumps. They checked it from continuing in an eastward direction, but it then whipped northward.

Flames resumed at the south end of the 14½ acre field and started toward the hangar. A call for the County fire department had already been made and it worked with other city trucks on the north field while another truck went back to the south end. The booster tank was emptied and while it was away being refilled the fire broke out again.

Another truck arrived, but the dry grass and weeds in the area were already a mass of flames. Quick work by the firemen whipped down the fire around the hangar building and succeeded in stopping fire which threatened for a time the Civil Air Patrol bus parked on the north side of the hangar.

No sooner had the firemen gotten the flames under control around the hangar than fire erupted on the southeast side of the long runway. Firemen then moved down along this strip and checked the flames.

The fire on the northwest side of the field burned up into a corn field on the J. F. Richardson farm and destroyed a stretch of corn along the fence line. Along the north line of the airport the fire spread through an adjoining pasture and burned its way to Boonville Street.

Hold Clinic On Pending Legislation

An area legislative clinic sponsored by the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce and the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce will be held Friday noon, Dec. 7, in the Ambassador Room of the Bothwell Hotel.

Richard Hamby, 20, of 1520 South Prospect, who was riding with Crafton, received three severe cuts on the right leg, one across the knee cap and two just below the knee, all of which took several stitches to close. He also received a cut on the left leg, a small cut on the nose and a tear under the chin which took a stitch to close.

Crafton was taken to the hospital in the Ewing ambulance, while Hamby was taken to the hospital in a Sedalia police patrol car. At the hospital, Dr. D. P. Dyer attended Crafton while Dr. A. L. Lowe treated Hamby.

Crafton was headed west on 32nd Street and hit the abutment, which is about three feet high from the top of the road, almost dead center. So great was the impact that the front end and the motor were jammed back, the drive shaft from the transmission to the differential was bent, and the steering wheel and steering column was bent forward and up.

The automobile was towed to Chamberlin's Garage by a wrecker from that garage.

2 Men Hurt When Auto Hits Culvert

Two men were severely injured about 2:45 a.m. Wednesday when the car they were riding in crashed into a concrete culvert abutment on 32nd Street, about 500 feet east of Highway 65. The car, a 1953 Mercury sedan, was demolished.

William E. Crafton, 21, of 1815 South Kentucky, driver of the car suffered a puncture of the left ear, a deep cut on the right elbow, a cut on the right leg, and complained of a back injury.

Richard Hamby, 20, of 1520 South Prospect, who was riding with Crafton, received three severe cuts on the right leg, one across the knee cap and two just below the knee, all of which took several stitches to close. He also received a cut on the left leg, a small cut on the nose and a tear under the chin which took a stitch to close.

US Officials Doubt Red Oil Could Help

No Basis for Report Of Oil Shipments To Western Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Department officials expressed doubt today that Russian oil shipments could help Western Europe meet its enormous needs while the Suez Canal is blocked.

These authorities said that because of limited production, Russia could export "only a mere trickle" in addition to the three million to four million tons it now is shipping annually to Western Europe. Soviet oil, they said, accounts for less than three per cent of the estimated 135 million tons the main Western European nations consume each year.

These officials said they had no information to support published reports that Russia has offered substantial quantities of oil to France, Egypt, Syria and other nations.

Only one bond proposal got a majority, but it lacked the necessary two-thirds majority. That was a $635,000 issue for four new fire stations and a police station. The vote was 8,086 in favor, 6,879 against.

The Syrian Embassy reported it had "nothing to support" the reports.

An Egyptian Embassy spokesman said he had no information on the possibility of stepped up Communist oil shipments to his country.

In Paris, however, a spokesman for the French Ministry of Industry and Trade said today the Soviet Union had offered to increase her oil shipments to France from 20,000 tons monthly to 100,000.

The spokesman said the negotiations are still under way and the figures are approximate. He said it was almost certain that the offer would be accepted but that even so it amounted "to a drop in the bucket" of France's needs because of the Suez crisis.

Crafton was taken to the hospital in the Ewing ambulance, while Hamby was taken to the hospital in a Sedalia police patrol car. At the hospital, Dr. D. P. Dyer attended Crafton while Dr. A. L. Lowe treated Hamby.

Crafton was headed west on 32nd Street and hit the abutment, which is about three feet high from the top of the road, almost dead center. Malenkov Reported To Be in Budapest For Kadar Support

BUDAPEST (AP) — Former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov was reportedly reported today to be in Budapest to bolster the government of Russian-installed Premier Janos Kadar.

An excellent source, who asked not to be named by name, said Malenkov, now a deputy Soviet premier, arrived in the Hungarian capital, Nov. 23.

This source said it was Malenkov who advised Kadar to change his lenient attitude and resort to harsh measures against still striking Hungarian workers.

This was the explanation given for Kadar's two sharp speeches broadcast Sunday and Monday in which he reversed his former conciliatory attitude in conferences with leaders of the workers' council of Greater Budapest.

Although Kadar has stated explicitly that he will add only "non-partisans" to his presently 100 per cent Communist government, he conferred yesterday for three hours with Bela Kovacs, secretary general of the Smallholders party.

The three-day antique show, sponsored by Mrs. Ann Wolf of Bonville, opened at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Convention Hall, Liberty Park, with a great variety of antiques in china, glass, brass, iron, wood and other materials. There, however, are few pieces of furniture.

Gleason Corning and Wayne Petersen are on their first trip to Missouri from Rapid City, S.D., near the Black Hills, and have a wide collection of cut glass, china, coffee grinders, buckets and even an old wooden horse, wooden utensils, tea leaf luster, and a butcher's block.

Ed and Anna Rost, St. Louis, have lovely colored glass, silver, dolls, mugs among the things pearl handled silverware and colored glass bottles in their collection.

From Kansas City is the display of the Victorian Shoppe with buttons, glassware, silver, a fish serving set and other types of dishes.

The Ramseys, too, are from Kansas City with much antique jewelry, jasper plaques, dolls and an old play stove complete with kettles, skillets, tea kettle, coal

Drumhead Tension Between Syria and Iraq Is Growing

Chance of Open Coup by Army Clique Is Seen

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department said today Russia is "adding to tensions" in the Middle East by shipping arms to Syria. It disclosed the American ambassador has expressed to Syria this government's concern over continuing Soviet weapons deliveries.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The drumhead tension between Syria and Iraq mounted today. The feeling grew that some sort of break — either in Damascus or Baghdad — might come within days.

Informed circles saw the likelihood of an open coup by the army clique that has taken control of Syria in recent weeks. The army faction, pro-Soviet although non-Communist, is led by Col. Aboul Hamid Saraj.

The Syrian-Iraqi crisis built up in a continuing exchange of bitter charges. Jordan's decision to cut its ties with Britain and consider closer relations with Russia under-Soviet penetration into the fermenting Middle East.

Iraq accuses Syria of conducting a subversive campaign against the government of Iraqi Premier Nuri Said, an opponent of Soviet moves to extend its middle east influence.

Syria charges Iraq with seeking to destroy the governments of both Syria and Jordan.

The latest blast came in a Damascus radio broadcast which claimed a delegation of Iraqi politicians had called on King Faisal to dismiss Nuri Said's government. The official Syrian radio said the delegation urged Faisal to appoint a government "responsive to national demands concentrated on the withdrawal of Iraq from the Baghdad Pact."

There was no confirmation from Baghdad of the report. Both Iraq and Lebanon previously have accused Syria's radio and press of airing false stories and spreading untruths designed to alienate Iraq and Lebanon from the West.

Says No New Acreage Will Be Needed

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department economist said the volume of farm output needed in 1957 can be produced without substantial new acreage despite the population increase.

The economist, Carl P. Heisig, chief of the production economics research branch, told the 34th annual Agricultural Outlook Conference that the output of food, feed and fiber needed 20 years from now may be about a third larger than today.

Scientists Blast Idea About Space

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Harvard University scientists blasted the idea that you would stay younger aboard a spaceship than by staying home.

Such an idea is based on a misunderstanding of Einstein's special theory of relativity, they told the American Rocket Society.

Science fiction writers, some college teachers and others have proposed that space travel could give you a drink at an Einsteinian fountain of youth.

The suggestion has been that anyone traveling away from earth at high speed relative to the earth's speed would undergo slowing of his life processes.

So astronauts might return from a long trip actually younger than they would be if they had stayed home all that time. A man could return younger than his identical twin who had stayed home.

But this is a fallacy, William R. Brewster Jr., Harriet B. Brewster, Majie S. Potsaid and James P. Isaacs said in a formal report at the opening of the Rocket Society's 11th annual meeting.

Uniform motion relative to the earth would have no effect whatever on the rate of life processes, they declared.

An example cited for thinking again is this:

If a clock is moving at a certain speed relative to a clock at rest, it loses time, slows down. A human is a kind of clock. If one twin is at rest and the other is moving at high speed relative to him, the traveling twin would experience fewer heartbeats. He could return younger than the twin at rest.

The Harvard twin might see his brother whiz by in a space ship and observe that his brother's clock is running slow and that his heartbeats also are slow.

But this velocity is relative, not absolute, "and Einstein says the two frames of reference may be interchanged, and the calculation that was true for one system of reference will hold true for the other."

So the brother in the space ship, since he is moving uniformly and therefore cannot detect his own motion, may assume his ship to be at rest. He sees the earth whiz by and observes that the earthbound brother's clock and heartbeats are slow.

When the twins get together again, they can have a nice discussion over who is older, Brewster said.

Ike Chooses Education Commissioner

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower today picked Dr. Lawrence Gridley Derthick, now superintendent of schools at Chattanooga, Tenn., to be U. S. Commissioner of Education.

At the same time, the President appointed Jack Z. Anderson for member of Congress and now an assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Benson, to serve as a White House liaison man with Congress. He will specialize in tending to farm legislation, as he has in the agriculture department.

In the education post, Derthick, who will be 51 Dec. 23, succeeds Dr. Samuel M. Brownell, brother of Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell. The job has been vacant since Sept. 1, when Samuel Brownell resigned to become superintendent of schools at Detroit. It pays $14,800 a year.

The President's choice of Derthick, announced at his vacation headquarters here, is a recess appointment subject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes in January.

The selection of Anderson as a White House liaison man with Congress is an outright Presidential appointment which does not require Senate confirmation.

Derthick, a native of Hazel Green, Ky., is a former principal of the City-County School at Clarksville, Tenn., and he was superintendent of schools at Nashville, Tenn., from 1939 to 1952.

He has been school superintendent at Chattanooga since 1942.

Anderson is a former Republican member of Congress from California. He served in the House from 1939 through 1952. He will work with retired Maj. Gen. William B. Persons, who heads up the Presidential staff dealing with Congress.

The position Anderson fills has been vacant since Fred A. Seaton was named Secretary of the Interior earlier this year.

Selection of Derthick and Anderson was announced as Eisenhower started the second full day of a golf-and-work vacation.

Hundreds of Asian Seamen Are Missing In Pacific Storms

MANILA (AP)—Hundreds of Asian seamen were missing and the crew of an American freighter was reported abandoning ship today as storms continued to sweep the South China Sea and the Western Pacific.

Globe Wireless intercepted a message from the 8,292-ton freighter Charles E. Dant saying the captain had ordered his 46 crewmen off in Lingayen gulf, on the west coast of Luzon Island.

The U.S. Navy ship Muskingum had been standing by and presumably took the men aboard.

Hope dwindled for hundreds of Malay and Chinese fishermen missing off the east coast of Malaya as more bad weather grounded British Air Force planes and kept royal navy ships out of the World Book of Prayer.

Roll was answered with a Bible verse from II Corinthians. Mrs. Milton Schlotzauer gave the devotional and read an article on Thanksgiving, concluding with a prayer.

Miss Mattie Stites held a memorial service in memory of Mrs. J. D. McCutcheon who died recently.

The lesson was presented by Mrs. Charles Schlotzauer, who read two articles, "Challenge Unlimited" and "No Fences of Misunderstanding Here." Mrs. J. D. Heinrich read two articles, "Notes on a Cross Country Team" and "A Flying Trip to Guatemala."

The hostess served refreshments.

Back home, they learned why Yo-Yo suffered combat fatigue while serving with the K-9 Corps in World War II. He can't stand the sound of a gun.

Return Bodies Of Persons In Air Crash

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The bodies of 25 persons killed in the crash of a New York-to-Caracas airliner were brought down by cable car last night from the cloud-shrouded mountains at the city's edge.

There were no survivors.

The dead included 10 Americans, among them 26-year-old Negro outfielder Charles Peete of Omaha, Neb., the American Assn.'s 1956 batting champion, his wife and three children.

The Venezuelan airliner, swinging in from the Caribbean through a rainstorm to land at Maiquetia, Caracas' seaside airport, plunged into a wooded mountain of the Boca Chica range.

Wreckage and the bodies of the 18 passengers and 7 crewmen were scattered over the area of a city block. The point of impact was about 150 feet from the crest.

It was the second crash in just over five months for the government-owned Linea Aereopostal Venezolana. One of the line's planes caught fire after a New York takeoff last June 20 and plunged 74 persons to death in the Atlantic off Asbury Park, N.J. — the world's worst disaster on a regular airline flight up to that date. Ten days later 128 persons were killed in the collision of two U.S. airliners over the Grand Canyon.

American financier Nelson Rockefeller had booked passage on the ill-fated plane but switched to another flight from New York to get a berth. He arrived safely for an inspection of his varied interests here.

Peete, property of the St. Louis Cardinals chain, was en route to play winter ball in Venezuela. He had a .350 hitting average this past season.

Other American dead were Robert Bernard of Central Falls, R.I.; Benjamin Regan, 35, Beloit, Wis.; Helen M. Strom; Evans J. Thorne, 41, Pittsburgh, Pa., and John Zlock, 38, Nesquehoning, Pa.

Soviet Produces Large Number of Doctors To Battle Disease

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia is producing doctors in great numbers, apparently in the hope of overwhelming disease with medical manpower.

By official account, the country has 330,000 doctors, about one for 600 persons. The United States has one for 700.

Some of the Russian medical leaders talk informally about a goal of a doctor for every hundred persons, a ratio they say would just about conquer disease in the country. They concede the Soviet Health Ministry will have the final word on numbers.

Dr. O. B. Kerbikov, head of the Second Medical Institute of Moscow, says it has a student body of 4,000 and graduates 600 doctors a year. He says the 80 medical schools in the country turn out about 23,000 graduates a year.

The United States has 81 medical schools graduating about 7,000 annually.

AF Accepts Resignation In Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has accepted the resignation of Lt. Titus A. Saunders while disputing his contention that it was pressured by a senator into dismissing him.

Saunders, a 25-year-old Negro, changed his mind several times after the Air Force last week gave him the option of resigning his commission under honorable conditions or being dropped from the rolls.

An Air Force spokesman said this is standard procedure in cases where a reserve officer has been convicted in a civil court. Saunders was convicted on charges of drunken driving in Mississippi in 1954.

Saunders first said he would resign. Then Sunday he telephoned Secretary of the Air Force Quarles that he was revoking that decision. Yesterday he sent another telegram to the director of personnel reinstating his resignation.

Earlier he had said Pentagon officials had told him that Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman said Butler, as leadoff witness, and Republican Chairman Leonard Hall were called to give "an accounting of campaign funds and activities."

Authorities Continue Dorsey Death Inquiry; Say Note Important

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—Greenwich police haven't closed their investigation into the death of band leader Tommy Dorsey, and Police Chief David W. Robbins says a note the famed trombonist left his wife "is important to our case."

The statement from Chief Robbins came even after the medical examiner, Dr. C. Stanley Knapp, signed a death certificate which listed the death as accidental asphyxiation.

The note Robbins referred to was not one given out by Dorsey's personal manager, Tino Barzie, shortly after the body was found in the palatial Dorsey home here Monday.

Robbins said the note Barzie released never was written by Dorsey.

"Barzie told me he didn't find any note in the Dorsey's bedroom," Chief Robbins said. "Barzie said he released his statement to newsmen to relieve the pressure on Mrs. Dorsey."

The purported note read by Barzie was affectionate in tone. Barzie said it was addressed to Mrs. Dorsey.

Iron $100 Bills

NEW YORK (AP)—Four Brooklyn laundrywomen suddenly found themselves ironing $100 bills yesterday.

A search disclosed that $1,000 had been run through the wash in a bundle of shirts.

The freshly laundered money will go to the women if the owner doesn't claim it from police within 90 days.

Missing Verb in Will Nets Husband $14,800

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A missing verb has netted Luther Reed $14,800.

The verb was omitted in a sentence of the will left by Reed's wife, who died in January. The sentence said: "He did not anything I had so I will him $5."

Orphans Court Judge James Brady ruled yesterday that the will didn't stand because of the missing verb. Reed got $14,800.

"What can I do for you?" he asked.

"I got what I wanted," the man said as he pulled away.

And so he had. Valdez said the pump showed $4.50 worth of gasoline gone. And no payment.

Night Clubs Are Full All Night In Red Poland

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—It used to be said that communism fills churches and prisons. In Warsaw, it fills night clubs too.

They open at six in the evening and keep going to six in the morning. How customers can afford it, at first sight, is one of the major mysteries of this strange capital.

Even the rarytas — one of the world's most expensive restaurants — on most nights is packed to the doors.

The rarytas has everything a restaurant should have — good food, platoons of immaculate waiters, soft lights and sweet music. A quiet dinner for two with a bottle of wine sets you back 400 zloties — a week's wage for a better-paid Pole, $100 for a Westermer in terms of Poland's outrageous exchange rate.

Lower down the social scale but still well up on the price list is the cascada, a smoke-filled cavern where the vodka flows.

By two in the morning the joint is really jumping as the band blares out the local version of Dixieland. The dancing is more exuberant than elegant and the whole dimly scene makes a rock 'n' roll riot look like a cozy tea party.

The showplace of the city is the Crocodile, a cellar club under Warsaw's celebrated "Old Town" — the medieval city sacked during the 1944 uprising and now rebuilt.

Each of 100 families in the church is offering to take care of one refugee family until the newcomers can make homes for themselves.

The pastor, the Rev. Laszlo Harangi, left yesterday for Camp Kilmer where he is seeking permission to bring the refugees here.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The First Hungarian Reformed Church here has gone all out in an effort to provide relief for Hungarian refugees streaming into Camp Kilmer, N.J.

Denver Man Will Bring Hungarian Relatives To US for Christmas

DENVER (AP)—Julian Toth, Denver shoemaker, reports four of his relatives have escaped from Communist Hungary and "I'm bringing them here for a good Christmas." All four are boys, 18 and 19.

Toth said one of the youths, Steve Johnson, fought Soviet troops from the first outbreak of the revolt. The youth, whose father is Toth's brother-in-law, fled to Austria under fire of border guards, Toth added.

Actor Changes Name

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gwynlyn Samuel Newton Ford — screen name, Glen Ford — is now legally Glenn Ford offscreen, too.

He told Superior Court yesterday that his given name causes him too much trouble when he travels. The court gave the Canadian-born actor permission to make his movie name his legal name.

Middle East Crisis Effects Missionaries

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa. (AP)—The Middle East crisis has seriously compromised American missionary work in Egypt. The secretary of the Near East committee of the National Council of Churches says.

Dr. Roland Scott of New York City told a foreign missions conference last night that no U.S. mission has yet closed, however.

He said two British Protestant missions closed after the British-French invasion.

In The Season Of Beginnings

The younger generation doesn't know how to save money, doesn't know how to lay up for that "rainy day" is a common observation by elders these days.

But right here in our own community of Sedalia and Central Missouri we find youngsters beginning early to establish savings accounts in banks, Christmas savings accounts which are ready to be tuned loose again, investment by young married people in homes, and even setting aside a bit for government savings bonds.

There always has to be a beginning with savings and the Christmas Savings account is a fine example of how to get the idea implanted. To firm up the idea, U.S. Savings Bonds offer another means of extending the thrift lesson.

Carl E. Brazier, Seattle Times editor, has some pertinent thoughts about this to supplement the current program of encouraging bond purchases during this season of thanks—from Thanksgiving through Christmas:

For these beginners' classes in life, the future depends largely on the start. No that a wrong start dooms anyone to ultimate failure; our ways can be mended—life is so good to us that way. But how much better the future, if wrong starts are avoided. And there are so many guideposts along those early stretches of the new life of responsibilities to save our beginners from straying down dead-end roads.

Yes, the dollar-sign is mighty factor in this season of beginnings. The moralists will say there is more—much more—in life than money. And they are so right. But without money, there isn't much. That's the lesson our beginners must learn, right from the start.

Money—not just for today and tomorrow. Money for next year and the next; money for a lifetime. Money for sickness; for enjoyment of health. Money for a home; for a family; for those children so happily dreamed of; for their proper upbringing and preparation for what some day will be for them, too, a new life of responsibilities.

Guideposts can be such a help. The older folks have learned—many of them the hard way—how much easier it is to meet the needs of future years with a balanced financial program. Not just a balance of income and outgo, as sometimes it's unthinkingly described. But a program that balances income on the one hand against savings and spendings on the other.

The world today is so good to its neophytes. Beginners today have incomes that, with proper planning, make possible the regular setting-aside for future-year needs right from the start.

Nor is that the only bright spot in today's perspective of future years. It's so much easier to save today. Government Savings Bonds fit into family planning so much more readily than anything Grandpa had in his day—better returns; nothing more secure; and payments of the hardly-feel-them type of the Payroll Savings Plan at work or the Bond-a-Month Plan of banks.

Millions of older-generation Americans are living proof to this oncoming generation that U.S. Savings Bonds belong in every family's picture of the future.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

British-American Relations Are Drifting

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Relations between the United States and its old allies, the French and British, have drifted from bad to worse during the last two weeks. They are even more frigid than appears on the surface.

The drift has been accompanied by an almost complete blackout on usual diplomatic discussions. American diplomats just aren't talking to French and British diplomats to any great extent any more.

For years, no important moves were made by the United States without careful advance discussion with our two chief allies. But last week there were no talks, no conferences, as the United States proceeded to rap the French and British over the knuckles by demanding that their troops get out of Suez "forthwith."

This failure to consult results from two facts. No. 1 — Is the fact that the French and British attacked Egypt without consulting the United States.

No. 2 — American foreign policy today is being operated largely from Key West. Thus it's difficult for the French and British ambassadors to go down to Florida to consult.

In New York, the British foreign minister, Selwyn Lloyd, is available for consultation with U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge at the United Nations. But British officials said there have been no talks about anything fundamental. Lodge is cordial but has not taken the British foreign minister into his confidence.

Remote Control

In Washington, foreign affairs are in the hands of Acting Secretary Herbert Hoover, Jr., whose knowledge of foreign affairs is meager and whose job in the State Department is that of administrative housekeeper. There have been some talks with minor officials, but they have been inconsequential.

Thus U. S. foreign policy today is dictated by remote control from John Foster Dulles in Key West administered by a green acting secretary in Washington. Mr. Hoover, and finally okayed by a sympathetic but second-hand executive, the President himself.

The manner in which the British have been shunted to one side is illustrated by the trip of Richard Casey, Australian Foreign Minister, to Washington. Casey is one of the top leaders of his country, probably will end up as Australian Prime Minister. Despite that, he was unable to get an appointment with President Eisenhower.

Many of the foreign ministers and prime

Guest Editorial—

FT. SMITH (Ark.) TIMES-RECORD: "Involuntary Servitude." — So now Arkansas wants to force employers to go to work for it as tax collectors!

For many years, employers have been in "involuntary servitude" to the federal government, collecting income taxes for it from their employees.

Now Arkansas is eyeing the same plan. At least one legislator has said that he will introduce such a bill in the coming session of the legislature—and Governor Faubus has given his guarded and tentative approval to the plan.

The plea is that it "would keep the state from losing revenue" from people who work awhile, leave the state — and simply ignore the income tax law.

Revenue or no revenue, we think the whole plan of forcing employers to "hold out" taxes from employees' pay and spend money on the bookkeeping involved is wrong.

And we don't think "more revenue" is any justification for something which we think, on the face of it is wrong.

Besides that, we think such a plan would be a preliminary to efforts to hike the income tax—since employees seem to forget they are being taxed. If it's taken out of their pay before they get it.

ministers now attending the UN Assembly in New York have been invited to the White House. But the Australian Foreign Minister for some unexplained reason was given the cold shoulder.

He ended up talking to Hoover and to Deputy Under-Secretary Robert Murphy instead. They told him in no uncertain terms that British troops would have to get out of Suez. Casey pointed out that the handful of UN troops from small countries would be at the mercy of the Egyptians, and urged that troops from stronger countries such as Canada and New Zealand be included in the UN force.

Hoover and Murphy said no.

The Australian Foreign Minister also suggested a compromise whereby French and British troops be taken into the UN police force. Again Hoover and Murphy said no.

The Australian flew back to New York. That was about the last effort the British have made to argue with American officials at a top level.

Policy By Pique

Allied diplomats describe American foreign policy as now one of pique — pique at the French and British for entering Suez without consulting Washington.

They blame the pique chiefly on Secretary Dulles. Even from his sick bed in Walter Reed hospital he vetoed plans for a Big Three — French, British and American conference; also he vetoed oil for London and Paris on credit until British and French troops were withdrawn. He is sticking to that policy now that he is at Key West.

Herbert Hoover, Jr., is also blamed for the present crackdown on the British and French because of his long time policy of leaning over backward to protect Saudi Arabian oil. French and British diplomats don't forget that Hoover's company, Union Oil, has close tie-ups with Gulf Oil which imports most of its product from Saudi Arabia.

All-in-all, the western alliance which has weathered all kinds of stress and strain is at the lowest point since the days when Sir Neville Chamberlain appeased Hitler.

Washington Pipeline

Vice-President Nixon has been doing heavy homework to keep up with the war scare. Aides say he is now better informed on world events than the President. . . . GOP Chairman Len Hall has confided that he will resign next year and run for governor of New York. . . . The British are now getting oil from Houston and Galveston. They have to pay for it in dollars which is seriously depleting pound sterling reserve, already dangerously low. They had originally been promised credits. . . . The Riverside California Enterprise urges that Judge Saund, the first native Indian ever elected to Congress, be permitted to broadcast over the Voice of America immediately. Judge Saund was scheduled to broadcast on Nov. 15, then was mysteriously canceled following an order from the White House. Reason for the abrupt cancellation has never been satisfactorily explained. Voice officials merely say they are "busy."

Khrushchev Was "Vodka-rized"

When Comrade Khrushchev told western diplomats "We'll bury you," he was so loaded with vodka that he could hardly stand up. In fact he was "vodka-rized" at both the diplomatic receptions where he sounded off against the West.

Marshal Voroshilov who was standing beside him at the Polish reception tried to get him to pipe down, but Mr. K brushed him aside, insisted on delivering his insults.

All this adds up to the belief in diplomatic circles that Khrushchev and his drinking pal Marshal Bulganin will be kicked out at next month's Communist party congress.

Japan had its first known contact with the West when a Portuguese ship of course arrived in Japanese waters about 1542.

Revenue or no revenue, we think the whole plan of forcing employers to "hold out" taxes from employees' pay and spend money on the bookkeeping involved is wrong.

Besides that, we think such a plan would be a preliminary to efforts to hike the income tax—since employees seem to forget they are being taxed. If it's taken out of their pay before they get it.

Newest Class Is a Mixed Lot--

Senate Freshmen Are Subject to Hazing

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Senate is like a college in some ways. Freshmen members are subject to mild hazing. They can get an education if they work at it. And you never can be sure, when a crop of freshmen enrolls, which is the most likely to succeed.

The freshman class which signs up next January is, as usual a mixed lot.

It numbers five Democrats and four Republicans. One of them, Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, signs himself a Democrat, but consistently gets along well with Republicans.

The Nation magazine, which disapproves of Senator Cooper, until recently called him "more conservative" than the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Two of the "freshmen" are repeaters. Republicans John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Chapman Revercomb of West Virginia have taken the course before.

This is not Ivy League class.

Some of the senators elected Nov. 6 come from wealthy or socially prominent families, of course. Democrat Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, for instance, and Republican Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky.

Two are second generation Americans — Jacob K. Javits of New York, product of an overwhelmingly Jewish neighborhood on New York's East Side.

And there are a couple who were practically running for office in their cribs. Georgia's Herman Talmadge (a Democrat, naturally) and the handsome young Democrat from Idaho, Frank Church, stem from families in which public office is a tradition.

Of the nine newcomers, that leaves only one unaccounted for — Democrat John Carroll of Colorado. He's a former House member, a lawyer, and a veteran of both world wars.

What can be expected of these Senate replacements?

Well, President Eisenhower can expect firm support of his foreign policy from at least three Republicans: Cooper, until recently ambassador to India; Morton, a former assistant secretary of state under the present administration; and Javits, an all-out Ike man who has just carried an olive branch message from the President to Israel.

(Javits, a Jew, won election even though he condemned the British-Israeli push into Egypt.)

Gremlins Outclass Smithton

Sacred Heart Cage Team Scores 63-51 Win Tuesday Night, Ups Record to 5-1

A game but outclassed Smithton High cage team fell prey to the Gremlins of Sacred Heart Tuesday night as the Sedalians upped their season's mark to five victories against one defeat in chalking up a 63-51 verdict over the host Smithtonites.

The Gremlin volleyballers, however, are unable to boast such success and were overridden by the Smithton girls 32-15.

In the cage feature, Sacred Heart ruled the roost early in the game but had to stage a rally in the final quarter to stem a threatening Smithton drive. The Gremlins pulled to the fore in the opening period, 15-8, but saw their lead begin to dwindle away under a rousing Smithton assault in the second quarter.

The half-time saw Sacred Heart holding a lean 25-21 edge, which was turned into a deadlock by the Smithtonites at the three-quarter mark, 41-41. The Gremlins struck with a 22-point barrage in the closing stanza and went on to snuff the hosts by 12 points.

The Mettler and company, coupled with a sparkling performance by Sacred Heart's Don Ressel, led the Gremlin attack. Mark Mettler hit seven baskets from the field and seven free throws for 21 points; Ressel accounted for five and nine for 19 markers, and Marvin Mettler produced five goals and three free tosses for 13. Rouchka and Mosey each collected five for Sacred Heart.

Smithton's scoring was led by Grimes with 13 points and J. Monsees with 12.

Hudson was high in the volleyball tilt with 11 for Smithton while B. Klein sparked Sacred Heart with three.

The Gremlins' next encounter will be at Tipton Friday night in an intersectional meeting.

Iowa Player Chosen 'Back of the Week'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Kenny Ploen, the fellow who puts the "go" in the attack that led Iowa to the Big 10 championship and a Rose Bowl berth, was chosen Associated Press Back of The Week today.

Ploen had a direct hand in four touchdowns and led the drive to another last Saturday as Iowa wound up its best season in 35 years with a 48-8 victory over Notre Dame.

When his busy afternoon's work was over, the Hawkeye quarterback had scored on runs of 10 and 41 yards, passed 23 yards to Fred Harris for another, and set up a fourth with a 32-yard run to the Notre Dame one.

Myers-Dusek Title Match In Spotlight

The Missouri state title dispute which occurred here several weeks ago will be brought to a head next Tuesday night at Sedalia's Armory when Sonny Myers and Joe Dusek clash in a return match.

The Myers-Dusek title match will be part of an outstanding double main event on the American Legion's wrestling card. Also sharing the co-featured mat spotlight will be four of the world's greatest Negro girl wrestlers who will compete in a tag team match.

Dusek retained the Missouri state title on a technicality in his October championship defense here against Myers. In that heated battle, Myers won the match but not the title.

All title matches are scheduled for the best-two-of-three falls and to dethrone a champion the challenger must win two straight or two out of three falls. Myers posted one fall in the October match and then he and Dusek battled toe-to-toe throughout the remainder of the bruising 60-minute clash without a second fall being scored. It was unprecedented in regional mat history.

While still the loser of the match, Dusek journeyed back to Omaha with the title trophy still in his possession. For more than a month Myers has been trying to get Joe back for a return title match here without success.

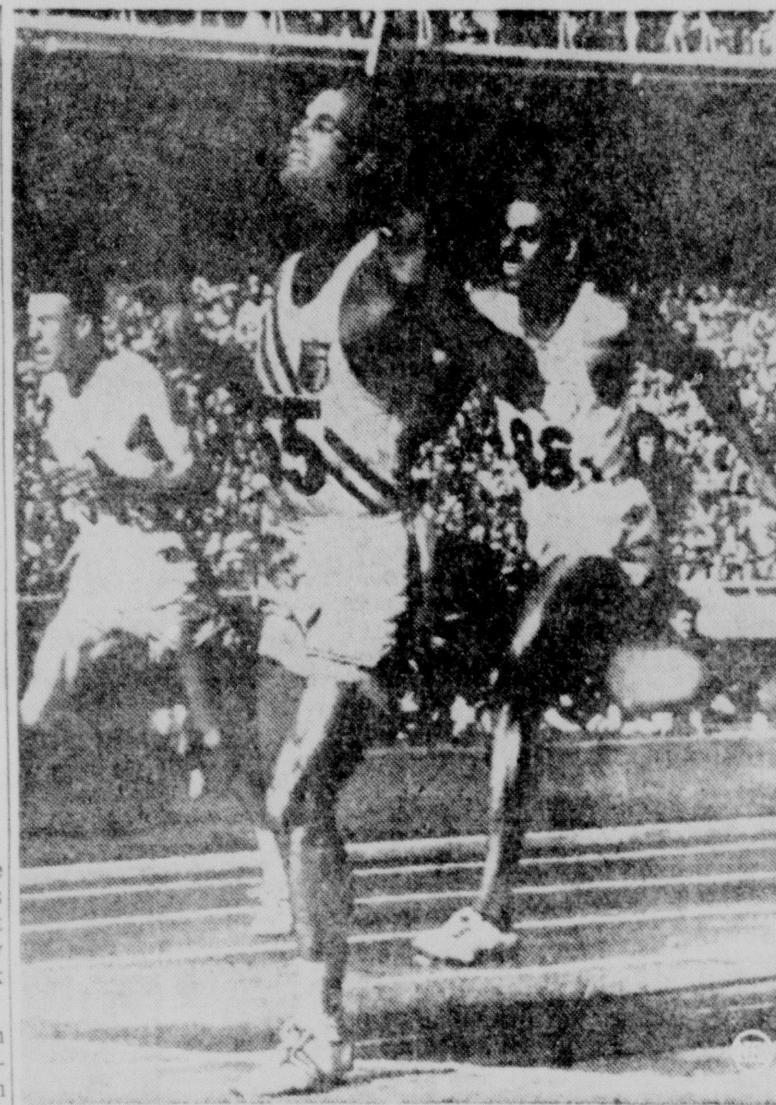

The Gremlins' next encounter will be at Tipton Friday night in an intersectional meeting.

Oklahoma Ruled Out--

Colorado Only Big Seven Team to Get Bowl Game Bid

By WES COOK
The Associated Press

The curtain falls Saturday on Big Seven football for 1956 with Colorado claiming the only post-season encore despite Oklahoma's No. 1 rating in the nation.

Early season hopes turned to Oklahoma, but the University of Colorado's 7-point favorite but upset is the rule in this game.

A Jayhawk victory would give Kansas a tie with Nebraska for third place in the league and drop Missouri to fourth.

A Tiger victory would leave Missouri in third, shove Nebraska to fourth and Kansas to fifth in the standings.

Chicago Bears Player Leads National League In Rushing Yardage

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rick Casares of the Chicago Bears is still leading the National Football League ball carriers but his cross-town rival Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals has moved within 26 yards of the top spot.

NFL statistics released today showed Casares with 774 yards on 178 carries for a 4.3 average. Matson picked up 159 yards that same afternoon to bring his total to 748 yards on 145 rushes for a 5.2 average. Eddie Brown of the Bears leads in passing with an 11.72 average gain in yards to 8.49 for Baltimore's George Shaw. Tobin Rote, Green Bay, has thrown the most touchdown passes, 16, and gained the most yard through the air, 1,714.

Bobby Layne, Detroit, replaced Casares as the leading scorer, 78 points to 72.

Billy Wilson, San Francisco, leads the pass receivers with 42. One more than Hill.

COLORADO'S Rick Casares will run under Fauot Saturday for the last time in the final conference game of the season against Kansas, an arch enemy.

Oklahoma, denied a bowl trip regardless of its record by a conference rule that prohibits any team from appearing in the Miami classic two years in succession, hopes to satisfy its disappointment by winning its second straight mythical national title.

The Sooners will shut down operations Saturday in an intrastate rivalry with Oklahoma A & M and are expected to show no mercy on the Aggies.

Tickets for Tuesday's matches have been placed on advance sale at the Pacific Cafe and Midway Shoe Repair shop. The matches Tuesday night will get underway at 8:15 with the Armory doors and box office opening at 7:15.

Its disappointments in the season numbered three—an opening game loss to Oregon, a mid-season defeat by Oklahoma and a tie game with Missouri.

The Buffs played probably their best game agains Oklahoma pushing into a 19-6 half time lead only to wilt in the last half under a three TD barrage that gave the Sooners a 27-12 decision.

Nebraska (4-6), Iowa State (2-8) and Kansas State (3-7) ended regular season play last week along with the Buffs.

Shaw Stories Make Good TV Dramas

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP)—If any honors are to be offered the leading dramatist on television this year let's not forget an Irish-born chap who had much to say and said it with mordant wit. He was born just 100 years ago and his name is George Bernard Shaw.

A goodly number of his works have appeared on the home screen in the past 12 months. As adapted for and interpreted in the TV medium all have been absorbing entertainment. Most recently came "Man and Superman" Sunday evening on "Hallmark Hall of Fame" (NBC-TV).

To praise this beautifully produced and delightfully played comedy of substance is rather, at this date, to gild the lily. (As another first-rate television dramatist of this current year, a fellow named William Shakespeare, once said in another context.) Yet let's praise it anyway.

Maurice Evans, as every man who condescends to marriage despite his best intentions, and Joan Greenwood as the inevitable woman who leads him to the altar, were superb. Other members of the cast were equally good in the fast spin through the mannered Edwardian era which was direct-

GI Sweetheart Will Return To Singing

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Her many fans will be happy to know that Frances Langford is back in the business again.

Many a former GI will remember sitting in a South Pacific jungle and listening to a tawny-haired charmer sing sentimental ballads in her throaty voice. To them, Frances Langford was their tangible connection with home.

Now the wartime sweetheart of the GI's is coming back to show business after a year's absence. She dropped out after her marriage to Ralph Evinrude, the outboard motor king.

Why has she come back?

"Because I've been singing most of my life," she explained. "I'd be sort of lost without it."

Her husband is very much in favor. "When you stop working, that's when you begin to stop living," he reasoned.

Frances, who began singing for a Tampa radio station at 15 for $5 a week, will do some TV guest shots and is negotiating a film show of her own. She will cut an album for Capitol. And MGM is talking about filming her life story.

"Only one thing worries me," she said. "Do they have to show everything?" She was assured that the subject of a film biography can usually determine what is depicted.

The more pleasure-loving in the audience will wonder that Frances wants to go back to work at all. The Evinrudes have elegant homes in Milwaukee and Florida. And when they travel, they go in style.

They fly about the country in a luxury liner.

His more caustic remarks about church and state and sex and superstition have been carefully culled. But still the old boy stands head and shoulders above the earnest young men who are trying to hammer dramas of social commentary against the brick walls of sponsor resistance.

Shaw, a disappointed novelist who turned to drama relatively late in life, didn't care a fig about plot or pace or all the neat tricks considered essential to television drama. But his work maintains a consistent brilliant entertainment on the home screen.

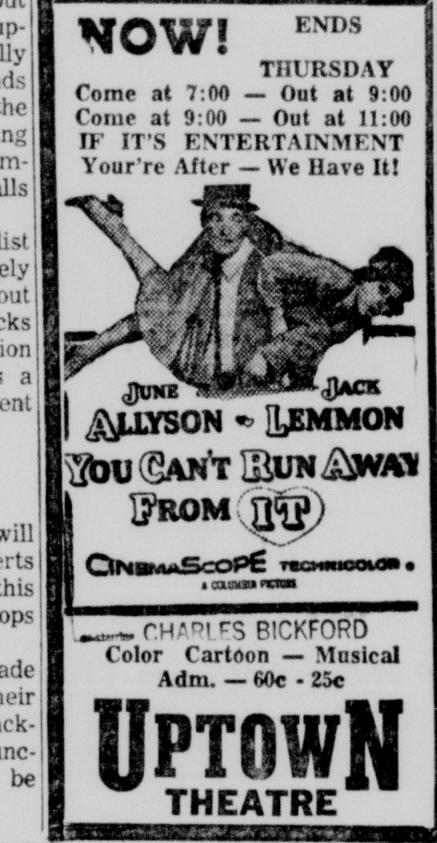

For Teenagers Only

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Adults will not be admitted to four concerts to be given for teen agers this season by the Milwaukee Pops orchestra.

"The concerts are being made attractive to teen agers, not their parents," said Mrs. Michael Mackanin Jr., chairman, in announcing that no one over 19 will be admitted.

Police Report Theft Of Dough From Cooler

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police said somebody burglarized some dough from a pizza place here. Only this wasn't the kind of dough you make pizza with.

"We can usually follow a network show right across the country," Evinrude said. "When one channel fades out, we can turn to another in the next town and keep watching the same show."

"Once we were right at the climax of an exciting movie," Frances added. "The picture started to fade, so Ralph told the pilot to go back and circle until the movie was over."

India's population is growing at the rate of five million per year.

FBI Learned Second-hand About A-bomb

NEW YORK (UPI)—The secret of this country's A-bomb experiments was so closely guarded in the government during World War II that even the FBI first learned of it through the Communists.

Don Whitehead, twice a Pulitzer prize winner as an Associated Press reporter, describes the discovery in a new book, "The FBI Story," published today by Random House.

Whitehead spent eight months preparing the book, with the FBI's complete cooperation and with access to FBI files previously closed to the public.

He traces the Federal Bureau of Investigation's growth from the day in 1908 that President Theodore Roosevelt created it to investigate Western land grabs and the FBI learned from one of its counterespionage operatives in a California laboratory that the Reds were aware that the United States was working on an atom bomb.

Roosevelt's order to the FBI, kept secret at the time and since, resulted in widespread attacks on the FBI and its work, both prior to World War II and after, when the Truman administration's loyalty drive on Reds in government was in full swing.

Whitehead traces the FBI's work in the postwar spy cases, from the day it first was discovered that A-bomb secrets had been sent to Russia, through the arrests of Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist; Harry Gold and David Greenglass, key figures in the network; and finally to Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, who were executed amid violent demonstrations engendered by Reds and fellow travelers.

Hoover, in a foreword to the book, says:

"The acts of the subversive, particularly the 'dyed-in-the-wool' Communist, call for increased vigilance. The security of our country has suffered because too many of our people were 'hoodwinked' by the propaganda which claimed that the Communist party was a political party like the Democratic or Republican party."

Traffic Hazard

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A Pennsylvanian said he liked the West Virginia Turnpike just fine, but it was the first time he had encountered horses and mules on the toll road.

Joseph Moore of Harrisburg, Pa., in a letter to the Charleston Gazette, said he almost ran into them on a foggy night near the Jackson interchange.

He said a service station attendant told him the animals "belonged to a sawmill nearby."

Border Line Dropped

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (UPI)—The North Carolina border was extended into South Carolina 66 feet without fanfare after a survey team discovered an old error in private property lines.

Polytely the variation was called to the attention of both Tar Heel and Palmetto state officials and the error rectified, including the replacing of border markers on Highway 107.

Ordination Service For Lonnie Martin

Lonnie Martin, student at Central Baptist seminary, Kansas City, Kan., was ordained to the ministry Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18, at Bethlehem Baptist Church north of Florence.

The service was called to order by Rev. Charles A. Whaley, Stover. A statement from the Bethlehem Church minutes was read by John Sanders, authorizing the formation of an Ordination Council.

The following were the elected officers of the Council: moderator, Rev. Charles A. Whaley, First Baptist Church, Stover; clerk, Rev. Earl F. Swafford, First Baptist Church, Otterville; interrogator, Rev. Charles B. Tucker, missionary of Harmony Baptist Association; presenter of the candidate, Charlie Brunkhorst, Bethlehem; ordination message, Rev. Cecil Finrock, Webborn Baptist Church, Kansas City, Kan.; ordination prayer, Jessie Straten, Otterville; and presenter of the Bible, John E. Sanders, Bethlehem.

Others on the council were Rev. Walter E. Conner, Mason Riley, H. F. Baugh, John M. Steele, Jr., Luther Wood, Orlyn H. Merriott, James V. Rastorfer, Shelton Ball, Fred B. Holman, W. H. Sanders, and Curtis Lopp.

Following the report from the clerk and the presentation of the candidate, the candidate was interrogated by the council. At the cessation of the interrogation, the Council and the Bethlehem Church moved to proceed with the ordination. Rev. Cecil Finrock, in the ordination message, using for his text 1 Timothy 1:12, gave reasons for one being ordained to the ministry. Jesse Straten led the ordination prayer. The service was concluded with the laying on of hands and the hand of Christian Fellowship.

Rev. Lonnie Martin, a native of Apache, Okla., is pastor of Flat Creek Baptist Church. Mrs. Martin is the former Marjorie Dukes.
